THE DATAI LANGKAWI IS HAILED AS ONE OF THE WORLD'S TOP 100 TRAVEL EXPERIENCES

Asia's iconic resort The Datai Langkawi has again been chosen as one of the region's foremost luxury hotels by readers of Condé Nast Traveller magazine (UK edition). Named the second-best hotel in Asia and the Indian subcontinent – up from fourth last year – the resort was also hailed as the 19th best travel experience in The World's Top 100 – up from 27th in 2015. The Condé Nast Traveller Readers' Travel Awards reward the very best in travel, from airlines to villas, and are seen by many as one of the most important accolades in the industry.

Speaking about The Datai Langkawi's success, Chief Operating Officer Arnaud Girodon said: "We are thrilled to have been acknowledged by these prestigious awards again and are delighted to have achieved the highest placing we have had in the past 14 years! We're in great company in the Top 100 and achieving an accolade like this helps cement our reputation as one of the best hotels in the world. More importantly though, it offers recognition for the excellent service our friendly and hard-working team delivers."

"We really appreciate the fact that it's Condé Nast Traveller readers who vote for their favourite travel experiences and we thank our guests for their continued support."

This new accolade adds to The Datai Langkawi's long list of awards – previous wins include the Enduring Excellence award at the Tatler Travel Awards 2013, Malaysia's Best Luxury Destination Spa at the World Luxury Spa Awards 2014 and Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence for The Dining Room in 2015.
