REPUBLICA DE CUBA

Columbus failed to find the riches of the Orient on which he had set his heart. Instead, shortly after his second landfall in the New World, on the island of Cuba, he came across a race of Indians contentedly smoking tobacco leaves roughly rolled into a shape they called a "Cohiba" but we would call a cigar.

Bolivar, Belicoso Fino

Pyramid

364

The strongest smoke across the brand. The fairly heavy ring gauge provides an abundance of smoke while the tapered head concentrates it before it reaches the palate, resulting in an elementally earthy smoke, heavy in minerals, raw cocoa and coffee bean.

STRENGTH: Full
GAUGE: Thick

RING GAUGE: 52mm
LENGTH: 140mm

Cohiba, Siglo No. IV

Corona Gorda

717

Powerful and well-balanced, with aromas of bell pepper, musk and precious woods. A cigar with a perfect balance between power and delicate flavor.

STRENGTH: Medium
GAUGE: Medium

RING GAUGE: 46mm
LENGTH: 143mm

Cohiba, Siglo No. III

Corona Grande

660

Often underestimated, the Siglo III can be depended upon to deliver perfectly balanced, elegant medium bodied flavours and aromas

STRENGTH: Medium
GAUGE: Medium

RING GAUGE: 42mm
LENGTH: 155mm

REPUBLICA DE CUBA

Montecristo No. 2

Torpedo

399

Floral first puffs of this light brown pyramid become quite toasty, charmingly detailed with accents of almonds, leather and warm oatmeal cookie. The long coffee-like finish hints of café au lait.

STRENGTH: Medium Full
GAUGE: Thick

RING GAUGE: 52mm
LENGTH: 156mm

Montecristo - Tubos

Petit Corona

344

Rich and light in color, and well made. The cigar has a solid vanilla and cream core and a savory character. A mild, pleasant cigar with a balsa wood finish.
